Report of VASUDHA VANDAN (AMRIT VATIKA)

Under the banner of "Meri Maati Mera Desh," the NSS units of the college organized a meaningful event, "Vasudha Vandan," on August 10, 2023, at GDC, Beerwah. With a strong commitment to environmental sustainability, the event saw the enthusiastic participation of students who collectively planted 75 saplings of indigenous species. This endeavor not only contributed to the preservation of local biodiversity but also underscored the significance of nurturing our planet for future generations. The event, characterized by a spirit of unity and environmental consciousness, showcased the college's dedication to fostering a sense of responsibility towards the environment among its students.
