WORLD ENVIRONMENT DAY

The world environment day was celebrated by the Department of Botany and Environmental Science on 9th June, 2022 in college. The day was celebrated under the theme “LIVING SUSTAINABLY IN HARMONY WITH NATURE AS THERE IS ONLY ONE EARTH” in which certain students, faculty members and invited speaker participated. The invited speaker talked about the certain environmental issues like climate change, global warming, environmental pollution and its health hazards. The light was thrown on the importance of sustainable development and living in harmony with nature. Conservation of biodiversity was also discussed in this programme.
